Biography – Jane Scaccetti

Jane Scaccetti began her public accounting career in 1977. Since that day, she has gained extensive experience in tax and financial services for the family-owned and entrepreneurially driven business. As part of her practice, she consults with public and privately owned companies and provides both corporate and individual business and financial counseling. In 1990, Jane became one of the founding shareholders of Drucker & Scaccetti. Jane was previously a partner in the national accounting firm of Laventhol & Horwath when in 1987 she became the first woman tax partner of any national accounting firm in Philadelphia.

Jane is CEO of this boutique firm of over 50 professionals with three active affiliates and related business operations. She is responsible for strategic initiatives, business development and professional career development in addition to servicing complex family-owned and closely-held businesses. Jane has developed an expertise in retail, distribution and health care and sophisticated wealth planning techniques and board governance. She serves on the advisory board of one client: Com Tex Interactive LLC.

Jane has received many awards and recognition over the years, including the 2006 PA Best 50 Women in Business Award, the Pinnacle Award and the 2010 Influential Woman of the Year. She has been recognized by the Philadelphia Business Journal as a Women of Distinction Award recipient (2010) and is an inaugural recipient of its Outstanding Directors Award (2013). Jane is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants
