Leadership: Why We Do What We Do
Jane Scaccetti

Let's challenge the paradigm and explore together the underlying reasons we do what we do, how to inspire others to follow, and letting happiness drive a rewarding career and not vice versa.

Through an interactive workshop, including two TED Talk videos, we will discuss how to awaken the inner leader within our staff and ourselves.

Getting the Most and Giving Your Best
Adam Crowson

Being part of an international professional association has a wide range of benefits. One of these benefits, perhaps the most important, is the opportunity to learn from each other. Practice management, mentorship programs and firm retention are examples of challenges firms face around the globe but whom each offer varying solutions.

This session will offer member firms the opportunity to create a platform in which best to address these issues with the support of GGI management. In short, this workshop will aim to shape the %Best Practices+future of GGI.
