

GGI EASYMEET
7 – 9 MARCH 2014
DUSSELDORF, GERMANY

General Information

Düsseldorf, in western Germany, is the capital city of the state North Rhine-Westphalia. It is one of the economic centres of Western Germany and is located along the River Rhine in the densely populated Rhine-Ruhr metropolitan area.

The city is famous for its nightlife, carnival, events, shopping and for fashion and trade fairs like the Boot Messe (one of the world's best trade fairs for boats and water sports) and Igedo (world leader in fashion). Every year, more than 4 million people visit the Kirmes fun fair which runs for 9 days in the summer.

Travel

Düsseldorf International Airport is located 8 kilometres (approximately 5 miles) north east of the InterContinental Düsseldorf hotel and approximately 7 kilometres (4.3 miles) north of downtown Düsseldorf.

Taxis from Düsseldorf Airport are available, which will cost approximately EUR 25 to the hotel and approximately 15 minutes travel time.

Climate

Like the rest of the lower Rhineland, Düsseldorf experiences moderate winters with little snowfall and mild to warm summers. The average annual temperature is 10.6°C (51°F) with an average yearly precipitation of 797 centimetres (314 inches). March sees an average temperature of 8°C (46°F)
