PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC

General Information

Prague is the capital and largest city of the Czech Republic. It is also the historical capital of Bohemia proper. Situated in the north-west of the country on the Vltava river, the city is home to about 1.3 million people.

Prague has been a political, cultural, and economic centre of central Europe with waxing and waning fortunes during its 1,100-year existence. Founded during the Romanesque and flourishing by the Gothic and Renaissance eras, Prague was not only the capital of the Czech state, but also the seat of two Holy Roman Emperors. It was an important city to the Habsburg Monarchy and its Austro-Hungarian Empire and after World War I became the capital of Czechoslovakia.

Prague is home to a number of famous cultural attractions, including the Prague Castle, the Charles Bridge, Old Town Square, the Jewish Quarter, the Lennon Wall and Petřín hill.

Climate

The city has a temperate oceanic climate, with warm summers and chilly winters. The winters are relatively cold with very little sunshine. Snow cover can be common between mid-November to late March. Winters vary in temperatures between -2 and 5 degrees Celcius. Precipitation in Prague is rather low (it is less rainy than Rome and Paris).

Please make sure to bring warm clothing for your trip to Prague as the temperature may get cold during the afternoon and evenings.

Currency

The official currency unit of Prague, Czech Republic is the Czech Koruna.

1 USD = 18.7 CZK

1 EUR = 24.4 USD
