General Information on Bucharest, Romania

Bucharest is the capital city, cultural, industrial, and financial centre of Romania. It is the largest city in Romania, located in the southeast of the country. According to July 1, 2010 official estimates, Bucharest proper has a population of 1,942,254. The urban area extends beyond the limits of Bucharest proper and has a population of 2 million people.

Economically, Bucharest is the most prosperous city in Romania and is one of the main industrial centres and transportation hubs of Eastern Europe. The city has a broad range of convention facilities, educational facilities, cultural venues, shopping arcades and recreational areas.

Climate

Bucharest has a humid continental climate. Due to its position on the Romanian Plain, the city's winters can get windy, even though some of the winds are mitigated due to urbanisation. Winter temperatures often dip below 0 °C, sometimes even dropping to -20 °C. In summer, the average temperature is approximately 23 °C, despite the fact that temperatures frequently reach 35 °C to 40 °C in mid-summer in the city centre.

Currency

The official currency unit of Bucharest, Romania is the RON.

1 EUR = 4,26787 RON

1 RON = 0,23431 EUR
