

Minutes of the PG meeting litigation and dispute resolution held in Vienna, Austria on October 20, 2017.

1. Johan welcomed everybody at the meeting.
There were 33 attendees, which was, according to Johan, a very nice number.
2. Because of that, the speed dating had to be shortened to 1 minute per person.
3. Johan informs the attendees that there were successful meetings this year during the Italian Business Summit, the European conference in Brussels, the North American meeting and the Latin American meeting.
4. He brought back to the memory the first stand-alone meeting in Florida in November 2016.
Johan is still very grateful for the assistance given by the members in Florida, especially the help from Betty and the help from both Patrizia and Gustavo.
5. This brought him to the stand alone PG meeting that will take place November 3- 6, 2017.
The meeting will be on a cruise ship sailing from Florida to the Bahamas and back on a three day cruise. Everybody is invited to the meeting with interesting topics and a lot of social events including a visit to the member firm of GGI in Nassau.
The price for an accompanying person to attend is only five dollars!!
Registration is only still possible for a few more days.
6. Johan reminded everybody that a chairperson is elected for a period of two years and that the elections will take place next year. He is willing to be the World chairperson for one more term but then somebody else has to take over.
7. The global vice chairperson, Karl Friedrich du Moulin then gave a short presentation about the newsletter. Johan is very grateful to him and the GGI staff making the production of the newsletter possible.
8. After that everybody presented her/himself during the speed dating session.
9. Andreas Weinzierl, of one of the host-firms, then gave a presentation on direct claims against liability insurances risks and possibilities in the lights of latest case law of the ECJ.
10. The presentation was followed by many questions and an interesting discussion and group pictures were taken.
11. As usual all those present were invited for drinks at the hotel bar and the chairperson thanked everybody for their presence and their contributions which made this PG meeting very successful.
12. The meeting was then adjourned.
