
GGI CORPORATE GOVERNANCE & COMPLIANCE SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP WEBINAR

Tuesday, 12 May 2020, 11:00 AM CDT (Central Daylight Time); 18:00 PM CEST (Central European Summer Time)

Anthony J. Soukenik & Dr Peter Wagesreiter

Corporate Governance, if you cannot get your administrative house in order during a pandemic when might you, if ever?

- Many companies are applying for government assistance, but do the corporate representatives have authority on behalf of the company to make the representations?
- What will be the ramifications of their lack of authority?
- Do typical compensation agreements to the principals of these companies address the windfall of government assistance and the claw back of a government audit if that government assistance was blended into officer compensation or shareholder(member) distributions?

This Special Interest Group has a new leadership team: Global Chairs Dr Peter Wagesreiter (Hasberger_Seitz & Partner Rechtsanwälte GmbH, Vienna, Austria) and Anthony J. Soukenik (Sandberg Phoenix, St Louis, MO, USA).

The new SIG features co-chairs from the US and Europe, and we foresee that it will bring a fresh approach to cover wider international topics. The Chairpersons will be soliciting support from members to report on other continents and their countries with equal emphasis on law and accounting.
