

GGI LEADERSHIP & TRANSFORMATIONAL CHANGE SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP WEBINAR

Wednesday, 28 October 2020, 14:00 PM CET (Central European Time)

Chairs: Sameer Kamboj & Special Guest Mrinal Sinha

Fireside chat - Insights on how the founders managed emotional balance during a successful Indo-Danish acquisition deal

Following on from the last webinar on "Maintaining Emotional Well Being during Uncertain Times" held on 29 September 2020, we explored various nuances of emotional wellbeing, and how our mental state plays a crucial role in influencing the critical business decisions we make, including high value M&A deals. We also explored a few cases of deals gone sour due to imbalanced emotions of the founders, and cases where balanced emotions led to the right collaboration between the parties leading to win-win.

The next part of this series will include guests Anurag Goel (Co-Founder, Cactus Communication India) and Thomas Laursen (Founder, Unsilo Denmark) in a candid fireside chat, where they will share their experiences of how Cactus, an Indian global scientific communications company, acquired Unsilo, a pioneer in the AI and deep-learning space, while ensuring the fears, doubts, skepticism of the founders paved way for mutual acceptance, respect, collaboration and synergies. The talk would revolve around what was going on in their respective minds and hearts when they were on the verge of joining hands together.

The fireside would be moderated by Sameer Kamboj (Global Chairperson for the GGI Leadership & Transformation Change SIG) and Mrinal Sinha (who was a key orchestrator of the Cactus-Unsilo acquisition), both of whom will help us get up close and personal with the two gentlemen and explore their thoughts on the subject.
