

ASIAN REGIONAL CONFERENCE 15-18 DECEMBER 2011

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Practice Group Summaries

International Taxation

Ashish Bairagra / Ricky Wong

Have you been to a speed dating event? If not, ITPG will offer you the opportunity to a session of "Speed Networking". After a successful launch in Toronto, the Speed Networking session is being extended to the Asian Regional Conference which will enable you to know more about some participants. The technical session will include discussion on the regulatory and tax aspects for expatriates, why should you invest into China through Hong Kong and country presentations on anti-money laundering measures through tax reforms. You will also be updated on the latest news on ITPG.

Enhanced Business Opportunities

Elisabeth Heller

The Practice Group EBO focuses on business development for GGI members and their clients. During the stay in Kuala Lumpur, our objectives for the special EBO workshop will focus on the following topics:

- Intercultural Business Behaviour Guide: presentation of the actual status, decision about topics, contents, pictures, graphic and colour's outfit, distribution channels, social media and advertisement activities
- Exchange of experience: How to handle Clients in South East Asia
- Announcement of extraordinary Practice Group Meeting in Marbella, Spain
- Information about the running projects "Staff Exchange Program" and "GGI Young Professionals"

Auditing, Reporting & Compliance

Steve Bradby

- Discuss and understand existing capabilities of GGI member firms in the region, the nature of their work and the regulatory environment in which they operate
- Natural/sensible business and commercial opportunities arising from existing GGI skill sets
- Experience and business already performed to date, including key relationships developed
- Considerations for establishing an Audit Practice Group subdivision in the region
- Commitment to processes driving audit approach and quality control – taking care to avoid being seen as a network
