v Munich

Munich is the capital city of Bavaria, Germany. It is located on the River Isar north of the Bavarian Alps. Munich is the third largest city in Germany, after Berlin and Hamburg. There are about 1.35 million people living within city limits. Munich hosted the 1972 Summer Olympics and is a candidate city for the 2018 Winter Olympics.

Modern Munich is a financial and publishing hub, and a frequently top-ranked destination for migration and ex-patriate location in livability rankings. Munich achieved 7th place in frequently quoted Mercer livability rankings in 2010.

v Weather

Munich experiences cold winters, but heavy rainfall is rarely seen in the winter. The coldest month is January with an average temperature of  $-1$  C. April is normally around  $+2$  C to  $+10$  C – there might also be some rain, so don't forget to bring an umbrella and a raincoat.

We suggest you to check the weather forecast some days prior the conference on the following link:
<http://www.weather.com/weather/today>

If you have any dietary requirements or special requests (e.g. vegetarian meals, food allergies), please let us know as soon as possible. We want your stay in Munich to be a memorable experience.
